Hello Kids!

We meet again in another edition of our very own "NGEE ANN SHINE" newsletter. In this issue, we've lined up some rather interesting articles, written by our very own talented students, for your reading pleasure. We've also taken the opportunity to include a poem especially dedicated to all of you, in commemoration of that special day on 1 October - Children's Day.

To our P6 graduating classes, we would like to wish you the best of luck in your coming PSLE. Strive hard to reach for your goals! As this will be the last year that you will be celebrating your life as a "child" before you reach your teenage life, we hope that this celebration would be embedded deep in your heart and mind!

So sit back and enjoy your read!

There is a special day in the year,
On the 1st of October,
When children's excitement fills the air,
As they gaze across the hall, their eyes a curious stare,
In shades of awe, they began to wonder,
There on the stage, is that my teacher?

Yes! Our beloved children,
This is indeed a day of celebration,
Where we, YOUR teachers,
Adorn our robes to be YOUR 'performers',
To provide you with entertainment,
And show you our appreciation.

Now ... listen well our beloved children ...

No matter what others may say,
You are all special in your own way,
Believe in your strength and ability,
And you'll be whatever you dream to be,
But remember, you have to always strive,
As you go through your journey of life.

Now children, let us count our blessings,
As we, your teachers, take you under our wings,
Together we shall fly high,
And reach out for the sky,
No matter what life has to offer,

We, in Ngee Ann Primary, aim to mould you for the future.
